

GEORGIA RECYCLING COALITION

Read for Recycling

Read for Recycling (RfR) is an annual event sponsored by the Georgia Recycling Coalition (GRC) to celebrate America Recycles Day. K-12 students in Georgia are encouraged to read books about waste reduction and recycling activities as part of GRC's America Recycles Day celebration.

Follow these easy steps to participate:

1. Read a minimum of five (5) recycling books in November, record them, and write down fun facts from the book in your Reading Journal.

2. Once completed, submit the online form at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/Read4Recycling>.
OR print and mail your Reading Journal to:

Read for Recycling c/o Page Beckwith
6 First Ave
Newnan, GA 30263

3. The Reading Journal is due to GRC by December 1 for ARD.

4. AWARD(S): Six participating students from K-12 will be randomly drawn to win a $50 book store gift card!

5. Teachers/Media Center Award: The teacher and/or media center specialist with the most student participation will receive a class set of waste reduction books for their classroom.
